

Steps to Reopening

Available online services

- Online Programs & Events
- Interlibrary Loaning
- eBooks, eMagazines, & eAudiobooks
- Account Access

What will change

Step 1 	Step 2 	Step 3
Returns Returns will be accepted in outdoor book drop only. Returns will be quarantined for 72 hours. Curbside Service will continue for known materials being picked up. Reference Services In-person reference is available.	Returns Returns will be accepted in outdoor book drop only. Returns will be quarantined for 72 hours. Computer Access One-half of public-access computers will be available. Sessions limited to one hour, no extensions. Curbside Service will continue for known materials being picked up.	Returns Returns accepted indoors and outdoors with no quarantine period. In-Person Programs will resume with social distancing limitations; virtual programming will continue. Library Hours PPL will be open normal hours.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Limited seating <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No in-person programming <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No computer access <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No study/meeting rooms <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Library hours reduced 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Limited seating <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No in-person programming <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Library hours reduced <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No study/meeting rooms

What is temporarily not available

What we ask of you throughout all steps of reopening

Maintain social distance

Maintain good hand hygiene

Practice good respiratory hygiene

Stay at home when sick

Please be considerate of other users and staff

Wear a mask for the protection of yourself and others